GENERAL LITURGY 5

Grace

(Standing)

We worship you, Lord God, the high and lofty one, who inhabits eternity, whose name is holy. You dwell in the high and holy place, and also with those who are contrite and humble in spirit.

Give us grace to bring you the sacrifice of a broken and contrite heart, which you, O God, will not despise.

WAREHAM (22 H)

Lord God of hosts! O may our praise your courts with grate - ful in - cense fill, still may we stand be - fore your face, still hear and do your sov - ereign will.

The law of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul; the decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple.

More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb.

God spoke these words, saying:

You shall have no other gods besides me.

You shall not make for yourself an idol.

You shall not make wrongful use of the name of the Lord your God.

Remember the sabbath day, and keep it holy.

Honor your father and your mother.

You shall not murder.

You shall not commit adultery.

You shall not steal.

You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.

You shall not covet anything that belongs to your neighbor.

Our Lord Jesus Christ said: I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

SOUTHAMPTON (14 F)

Lord God, with shame I now con-fess I've turned a-way from you;

for-give me all my sin to-day, my heart and soul re-new.

(Kneeling or sitting)

Lord God, merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love and faithfulness, keeping steadfast love for thousands, forgiving iniquity, and transgression, and sin, yet by no means clearing the unrepentant: incline your ear and hear, for we do not present our supplications before you on the ground of our righteousness, but on the ground of your great mercies.

SILENT CONFESSION

Create in us a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within us. Do not cast us away from your presence and do not take your Holy Spirit from us. Restore to us the joy of your salvation, and sustain in us a willing spirit. Have mercy upon us according to your steadfast love; according to your abundant mercy, blot out our transgressions, through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Lord, have mercy upon us. Amen.

Thus says the Lord: I will forgive your iniquity and remember your sin no more.
Peace be with you.

(Standing)

PILGRIMAGE (166 A)

The peace which God a - lone re - veals and by his word of grace im - parts, which on - ly the be - liev - er feels, di - rect, and keep, and cheer our hearts!

And may the ho - ly Three - in - One, the Fa - ther, Word, and Com - fort - er, pour an a - bun - dant bless - ing down on ev - 'ry soul as - sem - bled here!

In the peace of God, let us join in professing our faith:

With the whole of Christendom, we share faith in the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. We believe and confess that God has revealed himself once for all in Jesus Christ; that our Lord has redeemed us with the whole of humanity by his death and resurrection; and that there is no salvation apart from him.

We believe that Christ is present with us in the word and the sacrament; that he directs us through the Spirit and thus forms us into a church. We hear him summoning us to follow him, and ask him to use us in his service. Christ joins us together mutually, so that knowing ourselves to be members of his body, we become willing to serve each other.

In this spirit we await the appearing of Jesus Christ, go forward to meet our Lord with joy, and pray to be found ready when he comes. Amen.

Lord God, Fa - ther, hear us as we pray:

Our Father, who art in heaven,

GENERAL 5: GRACE

(Prayers of thanksgiving and intercessions for church, nation, and world, the afflicted, and the coming of God's kingdom may be offered. These prayers may close with the following:)

Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time to make our common intercession to you, and you have promised through your beloved Son that where two or three are gathered together in his name you will be in the midst of them. Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us, granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

Amen.

(The prayers may close with the following stanza:)

On Your Ransomed Congregation 716

| 1 On your ransomed congregation,
Lord, lift up your countenance;
be our help, joy and salvation;
life and health to us dispense. 2 In each heart, O fix your dwelling;
there erect a monument
of your love, all love excelling;
there fulfill your blessed intent. | 3 Take us under your protection,
grant us to obey your voice,
simply follow your direction,
to your will resign our choice. 4 Thus may we, as your anointed, walk with you in truth and grace
in the path you have appointed,
till we reach your dwelling-place. |

When Simplicity We Cherish 717

|--|---|
| 1 When simplicity we cherish,
then the soul is full of light;
but that light will quickly vanish,
when of Jesus we lose sight. 2 Those who Christ alone desiring,
those whom nothing else can cheer
but the joy of his inspiring, lending to his voice an ear; 3 who in Christ find greatest treasure and upon his grace depend;
who but want to do his pleasure,
just fulfilling his commands; | 4 who to Jesus humbly cleaving pay obedience to his word,
who in closest union living with our Savior, Head, and Lord; 5 who in Jesus Christ abiding,
and from self-dependence free,
in none else but him confiding
walk in true simplicity. 6 Those who are by Christ directed, trusting the Good Shepherd's care,
from all harm will be protected,
and no danger need to fear. |

Let's fill our sanctuary with the bounty of Thanksgiving for all!

KICK OFF THE HOLIDAYS WITH AN EVENING OF DECORATING & FELLOWSHIP

We're kicking off the holiday season together, and you're invited! Join us for a festive evening of Christmas decorating, fun, and fellowship on Friday, November 29, 2024—the Friday right after Thanksgiving! First, a huge thank you to J. Frank Trivette for his many years of incredible leadership on the Christmas Decorating Committee. His efforts have brought beautiful improvements, and we're grateful for all he's done. Since the start of Advent changes each year, the timing of our decorating also shifts. With Advent beginning this year on the Sunday after Thanksgiving, we'll gather Friday evening to prepare our space for this meaningful season. Dinner will be served between 5:30 and 6:00 (menu TBD), and nursery care will be provided so everyone can join in. To help us plan food, please RSVP to Donna Cheek (336.399.0857) by Monday, November 25—but if you forget, come anyway! Come enjoy a night of holiday spirit, camaraderie, and see firsthand how we transform our space for Christmas! Mark your calendar and don't miss this memorable start to the season!

VOLUNTEERING AS A DIENER

In the Moravian tradition, dieners (derived from the German verb, dienen) serve the Lovefeast during services of worship. The lovefeast, dating to the New Testament agape meal, is not a sacrament like Holy Communion; rather, it is a fellowship meal symbolizing our unity in Christ. The meal is simple, usually consisting of a sweetened bun and a cup of coffee. After everyone is served, the congregation prays the blessing and partakes. Dieners play a very important role in the service of lovefeast. The women dressed plainly in white and the men dressed in dark coats are to convey simplicity in their dress as they represent the Christ “who came not to be served, but to serve.” Our dieners are an essential part of being able to host our three services on Christmas Eve, which is a beloved tradition in downtown Winston-Salem. Training for new dieners is provided and uniforms for female dieners are available for use. If you, or someone you know, are interested in serving or learning more about this important ministry, please contact the following head dieners:
