CALVARY CELEBRATES OUR LIVESTREAM MINISTRY!

Every Sunday, our worship services reach not only those gathered in our sanctuary but also countless others joining us from their homes, hospital rooms, and distant locations. This ministry of connection wouldn't be possible without the dedicated service of our livestream and sound volunteers who faithfully ensure that God's word is heard clearly, both in person and online.

This month, we want to shine a spotlight on four extraordinary individuals who serve tirelessly behind the scenes: Spencer Bullins, Frank Martin, Tucker Cheek, and Cathy Smith.

These volunteers arrive early each Sunday morning, often before most of us have finished our first cup of coffee. They test microphones, adjust sound levels, position cameras, and troubleshoot technical issues—all to ensure that when worship begins, everything runs seamlessly. Their work continues throughout the service as they monitor audio levels, switch camera angles, and manage the livestream feed, allowing all of us to focus on worship without distraction.

The past few years have shown us just how vital this ministry has become. Through their efforts, shut-ins can participate in worship, traveling members can stay connected with their church family, and those exploring faith can join us from the comfort of their homes. They have helped transform our sanctuary walls into bridges that extend our congregation far beyond our physical building.

What makes their service even more remarkable is the grace with which they handle the inevitable technical challenges. When microphones fail or internet connections falter, they work calmly and efficiently to resolve issues, often so smoothly that the congregation barely notices. Their patience, problem-solving skills, and servant hearts exemplify the love of Christ in action.

Their ministry may happen largely out of sight, but it is never out of mind. They are the hands and feet of Jesus, using their technical gifts to spread the Gospel and build up the body of Christ. Their dedication ensures that no one has to miss out on the worship, teaching, and fellowship that sustains our faith community.

The next time you watch our livestream or hear crystal-clear audio during worship, remember the faithful servants who make it possible. And if you see Spencer, Frank, Tucker, or Cathy, please take a moment to thank them for their invaluable service to our church family.

May God continue to bless their ministry and multiply the impact of their faithful service.
